Section 7 – Nomination of beneficiaries – optional (Life Assured option only)

Complete this section if you wish to nominate a beneficiary or beneficiaries.

You may not nominate beneficiaries where the contract is owned by two or more persons and the life cover is written on a Joint Life first death basis.

You are liable to designate that in the event of your death the benefits of the bond are payable to your chosen beneficiary or beneficiaries.

It is the responsibility of the bondholder(s) to ensure that the nomination of a beneficiary(ies) under the form shall be effective under the laws of his or her domicile and/or residence. We recommend that you take independent taxation and legal advice before making any nomination.

In France it is usual to nominate beneficiaries by name allocating a percentage based division of the benefits. Please use whole numbers and ensure the total is 100%

(If necessary please photocopy this page, complete and send in with this application.)

				DD/MM/YY
				DD/MM/YY
				DD/MM/YY
Total								100%

Notes

Should you wish to avoid delays at claim stage we recommend you supply evidence of identity of named beneficiaries.

Where a beneficiary has been informed of his or her nomination, he or she is entitled to accept such nomination by notifying Prudential International in writing by sending a copy of the deed or the notarial instrument duly signed by the bondholder(s) and the beneficiary (the "Accepting Beneficiary"). In such instance, Prudential International can only process a request (i) to amend the beneficiary(ies), (ii) for a full or partial surrender or (iii) to set up a regular withdrawal from the bond, with the prior written consent of the Accepting Beneficiary.

Provided that the beneficiary(ies) has/have not previously formally accepted his or her nomination:

- any subsequent nomination shall revoke this nomination and such acceptance shall be endorsed on the bond.
- the beneficiary(ies) shall have no right in or to the bond and the bond proceeds until the death of the relevant person(s) covered by the bond.

- the bondholder(s) may cancel this nomination without the need to appoint a beneficiary or beneficiaries in substitution or the consent of the beneficiary(ies) by notice in writing reaching the Administration Centre of Prudential International before the death of the relevant person covered by the bond.

This nomination will automatically become null and void in the event of the bond lapsing for any reason.

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, any revival of the Bond after it has lapsed shall have the effect of reviving this nomination if it was effective immediately before the Bond lapsed.

In the event of more than one person being nominated as a beneficiary and any one or more of them dies before the relevant person covered by the bond, his or her share shall accrue to the surviving beneficiary(ies) in proportion to the percentage of benefit on the nomination form.

The receipt by the beneficiary(ies) nominated in a nomination in force at the date of death of the relevant person covered by the bond shall be a good and full discharge for any payment of the proceeds of the bond and Prudential International shall not be concerned to see the application of such monies.

Notes

¹⁶ If there are more than two applicants please photocopy this Declaration, complete and send in with this application.

Section 9 – Declaration of residence outside Ireland

Each Applicant must read these definitions and then complete the declaration.

Please note that the declaration below regarding non-residence in Ireland must be completed before we can make payments.

Important Irish "Exit" Tax may be applied to the bond (for example on payments from the bond) if this declaration is not completed.

Residence definition – individual

An individual will be regarded as being resident in Ireland for a tax year if s/he either:

- › spends 183 days or more in the State in that tax year, or
- › has a combined presence of 280 days in the State, taking into account the number of days spent in the State in that tax year together with the number of days spent in the State in the preceding year.

Presence in a tax year by an individual of not more than 30 days in the State will not be reckoned for the purpose of applying the two-year test. Presence in the State for a day means the personal presence of an individual:

- › at the end of the day (midnight) for tax years 2008 and earlier, and
- › at any time during that day for tax year 2009 onwards.

Ordinary residence definition – individual

The term "ordinary residence" as distinct from "residence" relates to a person's normal pattern of life and denotes residence in a place with some degree of continuity. An individual who has been resident in the State for three consecutive tax years becomes ordinarily resident with effect from the commencement of the fourth tax year.

An individual who has been ordinarily resident in the State ceases to be ordinarily resident at the end of the third consecutive tax year in which s/he is not resident. Thus, an individual who is resident and ordinarily resident in the State in 2006 and departs from the State in that year will remain ordinarily resident up to the end of the tax year 2009.

Declaration of residence outside Ireland

Bondholders resident outside Ireland are required by the Irish Revenue Commissioners to make the following declaration, which is in a format authorised by them, in order to receive payments without deduction of Irish tax.

I/We* declare that (*Delete as appropriate)

- › I/We* have read the explanation of the terms detailed in the "residence definitions" above.
- › I am/We are* the bondholder in respect of which this declaration is being made.
- › I am/We are* not resident or ordinarily resident in Ireland.

If you are making this declaration whilst in the process of setting up your policy, setting up a series of regular withdrawals or making a first partial encashment:

- › I/We* hereby undertake(s) to inform Prudential International of any change in my/our/the Company's* country of residence during the life of the policy.
